Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Native American arts have always enhanced the cultural appeal of South Dakota in architecture, design and creative expression; and,

WHEREAS, Those native art forms, expecially those styles indigenous to the tribes of the Northern Plains, whether practiced traditionally or in modern techniques, are an integral part of South Dakota's heritage; and,

WHEREAS, It is good and proper that an event celebrating, promoting and marketing the art of the best Northern Plains tribal artists be established in South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, The Northern Plains Tribal Arts Advisory Committee and American Indian Services, Inc., of Sioux Falls, is sponsoring Northern Plains Tribal Arts '89--an annual juried art show and market unique to South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota is proud of its Native American artists and their contributions to the beauty and dignity of our great state; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota is proud to host the Northern Plains Tribal Arts '89, the second annual Northern Plains Tribal Arts Show and Market, on September 22, 23 and 24:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 18 through 24, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I encourage South Dakotans to reflect on their cultural heritage during this our Centennial year and to join in the celebration of Northern Plains tribal arts and culture in Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
